Dear Friends

Our next production sees us back in Longdown Village Hall where we hope you'll join us for our next performance, Lady Windermere's Fan, by Oscar Wilde. This production is being directed for us by Ian Guy and curtain up will be at 7.30pm as usual.

First performed in 1892, Lady Windermere's Fan was one of Oscar Wilde's earliest theatrical successes. The play is centred on the titular character of Lady Windermere, who on the day of her birthday party hears a disturbing rumour...is her husband having an affair? And will the 'other woman' really attend the party? Chronicling a series of misunderstandings and deceptions in the high society world of Victorian London this hectic upper-class comedy sparkles with Wilde's trademark wit and intelligence and remains one of his most popular plays to this day.

Please book your seats and your pasties using the form below. We hope to see you all again at Lord and Lady Windermere's Ball in September!
