Dear Friends

Our March production sees us back in Longdown Village Hall where we hope to see you for our performances of Flare Path by Terence Rattigan. This is a WWII love story with a difference and is being directed for us by Jenny Nash on March 23rd-25th with curtain up at our usual time of 7.30pm.

At the Falcon Hotel on the Lincolnshire coast, men from a nearby RAF airbase are planning to spend the weekend with their wives. Patricia Graham, an actress from London, has something to tell her husband Teddy, who is a bomber pilot. The situation is complicated when Peter Kyle, a Hollywood film star, arrives at the hotel, and Teddy is sent out on a night raid over Germany. Patricia is torn between a rekindled old flame and loyalty to the husband who relies on her for support. Tensions rise as a plane goes missing as those at the hotel sit and wait.

Please book your seats (bring a cushion!) and your pasties using the form below and come and see us in Longdown (EX6 7SN). We look forward to welcoming you again.
