Dear Friends

A very belated Happy New Year to you all. Our first play of the New Year is a comedy, The Camel's Back by Arnold Helsby which is being directed for us by Robin Thwaytes. This production will be at Longdown Village Hall on March 14th, 15th & 16th with curtain up at our usual time of 7.30pm.

Mr Hannacott, the owner of the farm, has recently died and his will aims to secure the future of his family and ensure the farm is managed efficiently. To this end he insists that his sister Prudence, a spinster, should bring her business acumen to the farm. However, running a farm is very different to running a successful draper's shop, and her methods are not always welcomed by the family, the farm staff or the villagers. A production of an amateur play in the village leads to further problems on the farm as well and has everyone wondering how to get rid of Prudence!

Please book your seats and your pasties for fun on the farm using the form below. We hope to see you all again in March.
